HOT FASHION Tips for Winter Colour-In

The winter hues for 2010 are once again our old favourite black, with shades of charcoal, and grey following in hot pursuit. Colours to compliment are the purple hues such as lilac, purple and plum. And then of course there's red. The standout shade on many a winter runway overseas. At Versace, Giorgio Armani and Prada, red and crimson provided that much-needed shot of vibrancy. This is colour for the more confident dresser. So ladies, go paint the town red!

Dresses

Dresses are still the rave. Flowing dresses with bold sleeves either in puff sleeve or trumpet and bell sleeves are hot. Dresses have a classical look, are easy to wear, and can be dresses up or down very easily with the right accessories. Dresses are in black, grey, red, purple hues and even blues. Watch out for the odd mustard and green numbers in the mix just to brighten up those dreary wintery days.

Dieter Odendaal – Designer and Co-owner of La Dolce Vita Boutiques

Dieter at the Fees van die Ganse. We broadcasted live from 10 to 2pm & what fun it was. Anton Goosen & others were also there, check out our Facebook wall for more pics..

Archie presents Mid Morning Burn OUT on Saturdays with Bongani he says...

Archiecracy, my cultural regime, is on Whale Coast FM. Few key isixhosa words and terms you must know when listening to my programme: Molweni (hellow); emakhaya (at homes); ezimotweni (in cars). But when you attempt to pronounce these, think more along Afrikaans lines.

HI ALL, JUST TO LET EVERYONE KNOW THE TIME HAS COME FOR ME TO LEAVE WHALE COAST FM. BUT BE SURE TO STAY TUNED AS I WILL. REMEMBER LOCAL IS LEKKER!!!! CHEERS TO ALL, HAYLEY AKA MARKETING MANAGER 96FM
